Communication training – how to communicate your research results to business stakeholders

Get hands on advice on how to improve your technology communication towards business holders.

Online pitch

The online pitch and matchmaking is an effective tool to ensure market validation for the FET/EIC Pathfinder projects. FET researchers pitch in front of an audience consisting of the BRIEFING innovation ecosystem.

Dates:

13 Feb 2020 | 4 June 2020

---

Webinars

Our free access recorded webinars cover the topics of patent protection, intellectual property (IPR) and much more.

Peer-to-peer experience sharing and dialogue

Online peer-to-peer sessions are an effective way to distribute knowledge and learn from other parties' experiences and best practices, thus enabling structured collaboration between projects.

Dates:

14 May 2020, 11.00–12.00

---

Mentoring

FET Briefing mentors will assist you in your FET researcher journey in business development, research result exploitation, time management and other business related topic. Find the mentor who is the best for you!
